Catering Policies

Inn at the Market works with onsite caterers as well as local vendors in Pike Place Market and downtown Seattle. All catering orders must be placed a minimum of five (10) business days prior to function.

The guaranteed number of persons attending is required no less than one week (5 working days) prior to function. Charges will be assessed by the final count or the guaranteed number – whichever is greater. Full compensation is required on cancellations that occur after the one-week cutoff date.
